A NURSE'S PRAYER

I dedicate myself to Thee,
O Lord, my God! This work I undertake
Alone in Thy great name, and for Thy sake.
In ministering to suffering I would learn
The sympathy that in Thy heart did burn
For those who on life's weary way
Unto diseases divers are a prey.
Take, then, mine eyes, and teach them to perceive
The ablest way each sick one to relieve.
Guide Thou my hands, that even their touch may prove
The gentleness and aptness born of love.
Bless Thou my feet, and while they softly tread
May faces smile on many a sufferer's bed.
Teach Thou my lips, guide Thou my tongue,
Give me a word in season for each one.
Clothe me with patient strength all tasks to bear,
Crown me with hope and love, which know no fear,
And faith that, coming face to face with death,
Shall even inspire with joy the dying breath.
And through the arduous day my actions guide,
So I shall wake refreshed, with strength to pray:
"Work in me, through me, with me, Lord, this day!"

MRS. MARGRET DAWLESS

MRS. NELLIE STOCKDALE

"A mother is not a person to lean on but a person to make leaning unnecessary." Housemothers have a 1001 uses, from solving major knitting problems to dispensing coffee to maintaining law and order. To our unsung heroines, Mrs. Dawless and Mrs. Stockdale, we dedicate this Paragon.
